NORFOLK RACING IS KEEN

CONDITIONS IDEAL FOR SPORT AND BEST CROWD OF MEETING TURNS OUT.

Racers from Stable of J. W. Flynn Play Important Part in Results—Halter Men Show Activity—Track in Better Shape.

Norfolk, Va., November 11.—J. W. Flynn, who is racing a small but select stable here, is playing an important part in the meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club this fall. Mr. Flynn has won six purses to date, two of which he took today with The Golden Buttery and Montcalm. The latter's victory came with the running of the Merchants' Selling Stakes, a sprint affair at six and a half furlongs in which he beat the heavily backed favorite, Ben Loyal, in easy fashion. It was the second time during the meeting that Mr. Flynn has sent two winners to the post, Minnie Bright and Capsie having won for him on Thursday last.

The weather conditions could hardly have been improved upon for racing this afternoon. Wraps were a burden rather than a comfort and the bright warm sunshine made outdoor sport exceedingly attractive. The crowd that turned out was by far the largest of the meeting and some keen sport was witnessed.

Barney Schreiber won a purse with his Banockburn two-year-old, James Duckery, which made a runaway affair of the first race. Rey and Eagle Bird had to be hard ridden to win their races by small margins. The latter took the fifth race, which was a selling affair, and after her victory she changed hands. J. W. Burttschell, whose Rose Queen finished second, securing her for $1,200. This was an advance of $300 over her entered price. A few days ago Mr. Burttschell took Richard Reed from H. G. Bedwell out of a selling race and the latter Redwell paid $1,200 for the latter and the chances are that it was a case of both buyer and seller being satisfied.

While on her way to the post in the first race the filly Wildwood got the better of jockey McCahey and ran away a mile. This ruined whatever chance she might have had. Eton Blue, also a starter in this race, was conglined in the paddock before going to the post and this in a measure may have been responsible for her poor showing.

William Walker purchased of William Garth the two-year-old Ontario and the latter race in the name and colors of her new owner this afternoon.

Ivan Fox's stable of jumpers, including Duffield, arrived from Marlboro this morning. Several other owners now racing at that track have asked for stable room.

On Monday the following are due to arrive from Latonia with their horses: J. Steckler, P. J. Miles, J. U. Strode, W. C. Capps, J. G. Lyman and John Sheridan. Another carload will be shipped from Latonia early next week.

Bringerfield, Belle Nelson, Wondawhy and Belle Hampton, four winners under the white, green sash and cap of Thomas Fortune Ryan, will winter at the home quarters in Virginia, where there are some promising yearlings. W. M. Carter, who has handled the string successfully this season, will prepare the horses for their 1912 engagements.

Henry W. Warren, whose Nosegay and Faultless have raced with distinction at eastern hunt meetings, will winter on Long Island. It is Mr. Warren's intention to add to his stable in the near future and train his horses for spring racing at the course of the Westchester Racing Association.

MEXICAN RACING ON SUBSTANTIAL BASIS.

Elite of Mexican Capital Continues to Show Great Interest in Sport.

Mexico City, Mex., November 5.—That racing is rapidly becoming fashionable in the capital of this republic was amply demonstrated today by an excellent attendance at the Condesa course and the representative character of the gathering. Diplomats, statesmen, men of affairs and the most influential portion of Mexican social life were well represented in the grandstand, on the lawn and in the betting ring.

The bookmaking contingent were greatly gratified by the amount of patronage accorded them and it was apparent that the local talent at fast mastering the American system of wagering.

The card today was attractive. W. G. Yanke was again conspicuously successful. His bay gelding Leopold won the second race, while his Lakroske finished first in the fifth.

Amor Brox, Madreperla, favorite in today's stake, ran disappointingly this afternoon, but his stable mate, Machintha, took first money.

R. J. Powers' colt, W. H. Ford, easily outran Marzo in the first race, while Henderson & Hogan's Tim Judge was first in the third. Sona was favorite in the fifth and won by head.

Colonel Winn and his associates are greatly pleased with the steady improvement that has been apparent since Derby Day and firmly believe that Mexico City will be a most important racing point on the occasion of the meeting proposed for next spring.

Mexico City, Mex., November 6.—The fifth day of the race meeting at Condesa was marked by bright skies, a balmy breeze, and a good attendance. The fact that Francisco Madero was inaugurated into his high office as president of Mexico, and the banks and business houses were closed, permitted the people to observe a general holiday. The volume of betting, which has become lively here, was greater than on any previous day.

The event that attracted the most attention was the fifth race, a handicap, in which Chapultepec won by a head from W. G. Yanke's great filly Round the World in the fastest run five furlongs of the meeting.

W. G. Yanke's Wooten won the first race, and his stable mate Incision took first money in the second. J. H. Meade's Rompie captured the third race, as an odds-on favorite.

Former Governor Land's Dos Estrellas, a contender in the 1911 Derby, won the fourth race from other horses that were also contenders in the big Mexican event.

The last race of the day developed a finish that sent the crowd wild with enthusiasm. San Bernito crossing under the wire first a nose in advance of Sigurd, with the latter horse a scant head before flying feet.

There were several new arrivals last night, including F. St. D. Skinner, a well-known American racing official. Judge Skinner is delighted with Mexico City and was much impressed with the size and appearance of the crowd at the course.

It has been learned here, on good authority, that the old style system of large stakes and books will be employed by the bookmakers at Juarez during the coming meeting at that place, instead of the small stakes that hitherto have been used on the border course.

There are twelve days of the meeting left before the close of the present racing season, the last day falling on November 26, and it is probable that next spring's meeting will cover at least sixty days.

STATISTICS OF THE LATONIA MEETING JUST ENDED

MARLBORO HAS ITS GREATEST CROWD.

Washington, D. C., November 11.—The largest crowd of the meeting visited the Marlboro track this afternoon. The track had dried out well and was in fairly good condition. The race for horses owned and ridden by officers of the army and navy was the main attraction and after a spirited contest Kyat won in a canter, it being his second win in a race of this kind at the Marlboro track.

The sport during the day was exceptionally good, there being many close finishes. Kyat and Muff were winning favorites. The first race was a thrilling one. Henock winning by a length in a hard drive, while the next three horses were heads apart. W. B. Carson, for the third time this week, took two purses, winning with Smirk and Muff, and taking second money with Jessup Burn. Muff's victory was of the fluky kind, as Dolly Bultman was best, and should have won, but her rider, Robinson, did not see Muff closing fast on the outside until it was too late. Hopkins piloted both of the Carson horses that won.

There will be two ladies' days next week, on Monday and Friday.
Two trainloads of horses will leave here after the meeting ends for Columbia, S. C. Arrangements have been made for special trains.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. C. H., Chicago. The bet was a draw on Royal Captive.
James, Chicago. The prices were challenged and verified.

B. M., Cincinnati, O. The bet was a draw. See reply to J. F.

J. P., Toronto, Ont. Your wager was on the race that was declared off and all bets on the race were off also.

Geo. R., Chicago. Attention's straight price, as was published in this newspaper, was 7 to 1. Do not secure place and show sales on unplaced horses.

W. S. M., Chicago. When two horses run a dead heat the money bet is added together and divided equally between the backer and layer. Your calculation is the correct one.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Deputy Sheriff Clarence Roberts sold Rossini to trainer Karkick for $350 in Covington Friday. Mr. Karkick had sued the owner, H. L. Stone, for money alleged to be due him for training the animal.

M. A. Michelson, who bought Dr. Bodine at Friday's paddock sale at Latonia, is a Cincinnati who is planning to get together a string for a Cuban campaign. Thomas Shannon will train for him.
